Re: United States v. Michael Goliszeski, 19-cr-889 (AJN)

Dear Judge Nathan:

On July 2, 2020, I was sentenced to one year and a day by your honor. My scheduled surrender date is January 2, 2021. I have not been contacted by the Federal Bureau of Prison as of the date of my letter to you.

I am writing you to respectfully request your review and reconsideration of my sentence. Given the increase in covid cases within the federal prison system. My continued employment at the First Presbyterian Church in Red Bank, New Jersey; I have been employed by the church since May 2019. I have made the monetary restitution to Rexton Realty Company and I have paid all fines imposed by the court.

I would like the opportunity to maintain my position with the church and continue to do the work I do for the church. I want to contribute to society through whatever program your honor chooses in lieu of incarceration.

I turn seventy years old on January 29, 2020 I have lived a productive and respectful life the crime I was accused of and have accepted responsibility for was the only dark side of my life which I will forever regret.

I have been told the court does not have the time to read correspondence that I am now the property of the Federal Bureau of Prisons. I pray that is not true.

Respectfully yours,

Michael Goliszeski
